Raina expresses satisfaction over reconstitution of Screening Committee

Jammu : Girdhari Lal Raina, former Member of Legislative Council and spokesperson of BJP has welcomed reconstitution of Screening Committee for registration of Kashmiri migrants.

The screening panel, which has been reconstituted in supersession of all previous orders on the subject, will have the Administrative Secretary, Home Department as its chairman while Additional Director General of Police, CID, J&K; Administrative Secretary, Department of Disaster Management, Relief, Rehabilitation and Reconstruction and Divisional Commissioners of Kashmir and Jammu will be its members. It is a much needed step and will address long pending issues of deserving families, he said.

Former MLC however cautioned the authorities against blatant misuse by some powerful and influential persons who exploit the provision for their own advantage. He urged the authorities to ensure a fool proof mechanism and prevent non-deserving exploiters and racketeers from stealing benefits of real sufferers.

An artificial category of migrants created by the then Government of Jammu Kashmir in the year 2000 named Political Migrants and were accorded registration and granted cash assistance at par with those migrants who had to leave Kashmir during 1989-90 for being targeted by terrorists, revealed Raina. It was claimed that these political migrants were under threat perception, a loaded term. The orders were issued in separate groups, he added.

This claimed threat perception was used by the Government after the 1996 Assembly election in a way to steal whatever little benefits or assistance was given to genuine displaced community by the Centre Government largely due to the efforts of the then Governor Jagmohan.

Cabinet decisions were issued ordering registration of political migrants. Cash assistance was sanctioned in their favour. He asserted that genuine victims shall not be discriminated against on any grounds whatsoever. But this category of political migrants is largely covered under a shroud of mystery keeping them away from public scrutiny.

Body of youth who drowned in Yamuna canal found after five days in Haryana

Yamunanagar : The body of 19-year-old Soyeb, who drowned in the Western Yamuna Canal near Khurdi on May 28, was found on Sunday. Police took the body into custody and after conducting post-mortem, handed over the body to the family. The family accused Soyeb's friends of being responsible for his death and also created a ruckus at the post-mortem house. The police calmed them down.

Originally a resident of Daulatpur village of Sahanpur in Uttar Pradesh, Intezaar works at a dairy in village Dudhla. He lives here with his children, brother and wife. His brother Soyeb had gone from home on May 28 but didn't return after this. When we talked to his friends Mohammad Riyaz and Mohammad Sami, they told that Soyeb was found under the Aurangabad bridge. From there he went somewhere without informing. When there was no trace of him for two days, a missing complaint was lodged with the Sadar Yamuna Nagar police station. The family alleges that Soyeb's friends had a hand in his death. They did not give correct information. There was an argument between both the parties outside the post-mortem house regarding this matter. Sadar Yamunanagar police station in-charge Kewal Singh said that the body of the youth was recovered. The family of the deceased has been informed. The matter is being investigated thoroughly. On the basis of which further action will be taken.

Youth bike rally for tourism promotion organised

Doda : In order to promote tourism, road safety and raise awareness among adventure enthusiasts, a youth bike rally was organised here on Sunday.

The rally was flagged off by Deputy Commissioner, Doda, Harvinder Singh in the presence of CEO Bhaderwah Development Authority, Bal Krishan and SDPO Bhaderwah Dr. Waseem.

Speaking on the occasion, Deputy Commissioner, Doda, Harvinder Singh, who actively participated in the rally emphasized the significance of adhering to traffic rules and regulations. "The aim behind organising the rally is to educate the youth about the importance of following traffic rules and prioritizing safety on the roads," he said.

The event, organised by Bhaderwah Development Authority in collaboration with various youth organizations, saw enthusiastic participation from young bikers who rode through the streets of Bhaderwah adorned in safety gear and helmets.

The rally, which commenced from Bhaderwah and culminated in the Jai Valley, garnered significant attention and support from prominent personalities and officials.

Devastating fire breaks out at PHE Filling store after hard efforts.

Jammu : Devastating fire broke out at PHE filling store here at Parliwand on Sunday.

Nine tankers and a truck which were stationed there caught the fire. The cause of the fire is not known but it engulfed the vehicles parked in the Filling Station. As soon the PHE officials got information of the fire they immediately rang the fire brigade.

Two fire tenders immediately rushed to site and dozed the fire
